Bridge Course

The Department of English of Ambedkar College of Arts and Science, Wandoor conducted a Bridge Course for the First Semester BA English students on 23rd, 24th and 25th November 2020 with an intention to support them in bridging the academic gap between Higher Secondary level to the Degree level. As part of the course, the students were provided with an introductory class on all the important areas in the current syllabus of BA English Language and Literature. All the faculty members of the Department of English, including that of the Complementary Courses, engaged the class with the purpose to familiarize the students with the key terms and concepts of the courses concerned. The course helped the students to boost up their academic skills and confidence in the learning process. They could clear their doubts regarding the syllabus, the structure of the course, the mode of internal evaluation and university examinations.

Remedial Session on Second Sem Common English Papers

The Department of English organized a remedial session on second semester common English papers Zeitgeist and academic writing on 04/01/2021. The sessions were handled by Naseera M K and Bhavya Padmanabhan N (Assistant Professors from the Dept.of English). The main objective of the session was to provide necessary help to the needy students who find these common papers difficult to study and to help them prepare for the upcoming second semester university examinations. Previous years' question papers were discussed in the remedial session which was helpful to the students to get acquainted with the university examination pattern. The sessions also discussed how to answer each type of questions in the university exam pattern. The areas in these textbooks which the students found difficult was also explained in a simplified manner.
